My Career :

- I worked as a translator/interpreter in a private automotive company for five years. My task was to provide communication between my company and abroad.
- I usually got jobs through UpWork and Freelancer websites. I have worked on many projects as a freelance translator/interpreter.
- I also worked on Turkish-English translation and subtitles in a TV series project.
- Later, I worked as a live interpreter in a clinic. My task here was to provide communication between the patient and the doctor. The patients were mainly from European countries, mostly from the United Kingdom. In this context, I know medical terminology.
- I acted as an interpreter at meetings for Turkish- English teleconferences via WhatsApp for companies affiliated with abroad and Turkey.
- I have done translation works of various websites from English into Turkish. I have localized these sites.
- Apart from companies, I met the interpretation needs of my individual customers through the teleconference method.
