

BEN GINTY

9667 Golden Rod Path
Columbia, MD 21046
1 (301) 828 5497
ginty2@umbc.edu

Objective

I am interested in beginning a career in the field of translation, which would allow me to combine my passions for Economics and French. I am a recent graduate of the University of Maryland, Baltimore County, where I worked closely with several professors to hone my translation skills. I can confidently translate between French and English for both general as well as financial situations.

Education

University of Maryland, Baltimore County

08/2013 – 08/2018

- BA in Economics
 - o Coursework in Accounting, Public Finance, and Monetary Policy
- BA in Modern Languages, Linguistics, and Intercultural Communication (French track)
 - o Coursework in French Translation, Intercultural Communication, French Culture, and Analysis of French Linguistics

Languages

- French – Full Professional Proficiency

Language Experience

Literacy Council of Montgomery County (Rockville, Maryland)

06/2016 – 12/2016

- English Tutor
 - o Taught English grammar to immigrants.

Computer Skills

- Proficient in MS Excel, Word, PowerPoint
- Proficient with CAT Tools (OmegaT)

References available upon request